Introduction – Something to CHEW on...

Chew is a specialist staffing agency focusing on top quality Front and back of house Catering staff, Promotional Models and Events experts on a permanent or temporary contract basis.

Initially set up to create a complete staffing solution to the Hospitality industry. Chew has continued to expand its services thanks to the contacts it has made over the years. Chew now offers complete turnkey event management, from initial brief through to planning, build, logistics and staffing during an event. A position we have worked hard to obtain and proud to offer you a “One stop Shop” facility.

Set up and run by people from an Event and Hospitality background ensuring the best level of delivery is guaranteed for our clients. We do not subscribe to a “One size fits all” philosophy. Instead we tailor the services we offer to meet the needs of each company or individual.

The services we offer include recruitment for supplying staff on a permanent or temporary basis for any event, promotional campaign and the catering industry. Client paid advertising (National/Regional press, Website). Event Planning, Project Management, Build and logistics as well as securing and finding suitable Venues for any brief.

Sourcing the right People

At CHEW we realise that quality candidates are crucial to enable us to respond rapidly to your needs and more importantly the success of an Event, Promotion Campaign or the running of a business. Some of the methods we use to ensure successful candidate flow are:

- Assessment Days – Regionalised depending on brief (Promotional Staff)
- Good relationships with localised agencies (largest in the UK)
- Open days and Networking
- Local, regional and national databases
- Relevant Internet job boards and social network sites
- Client & Candidate Recommendation (word of mouth)
- Client specific Internet recruitment campaigns
- Client specific Regional & National Press campaigns

Once sourced, we look at individuals on the following basis:

- Skills and experience
- Attitude
- Body Language
- Flexibility
- Appearance
- Suitability to represent CHEW and its clients

And we don't stop there...

We also offer training and support for all our staff to enable their progression as Event professionals. After all we are specialists in the “people” business and we don't settle for anything less than the best!

Testimonials

“Having worked with Chew Ltd, I would have no hesitation in recommending their services to anyone who is serious about their event and looking for staff with genuine expertise and ability”. — Managing Director of Silverleaf Events Ltd.

“I’ve worked with the Director of Chew Limited for nearly six years now. In that time, as Mulletover has grown and become more popular, Chew has always adapted to what we need. They supply us with General & Assistant Managers, Bar Managers, Supervisors, Cloakroom staff and teams of competent Bar staff with a good attitude to work. I put a lot of trust in what they do” — Co-Director of Mulletover

“Having worked with Chew over a number of events from corporate press launches to large scale consumer festivals, we have always received a good level of service and reliability from them. We are please to be in partnership with Chew moving forward as we can rest assured that the quality of the staff and attention to detail will always be met from pre-planning through execution to post campaign reconciliation” — Director - Soho Events Company Limited.

“Chew makes a refreshing change. The work is interesting and varied, the management is professional yet down earth and approachable. It is also great as a freelancer to feel fully involved and to be a respected part of the team” — Promotional Model working for Chew Ltd
